CLERKS' BALL

The clerks of Norway gave their 29th annual ball at the Opera House Tuesday evening with a large attendance, bad weather and sickness considered. Every seat in the large balcony was checked and about sixty-five couples danced until late hour. Many attractive gowns were worn and with appropriate decorations about the hall, made a brilliant setting for this important annual social event.

Foristral Orchestra numbering six pieces from Portland opened the program at 8:30 with the following concert numbers: March, "Blaze Away", Saxophone Solo, "Sax Tonic", Abe Holman Cornet solo, "Meditation of Daisies", Carl Worth Violin solo, selected, Jack Kennedy.

About forty couples joined in the march and circle led by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Burnell followed by the aids, the clerks and many guests. An order of sixteen dances with two extras followed. Boston Fancy, Portland Fancy and Lady of the Lake before intermission offered the veteran promoter John Hazelton of Portland an opportunity to some in personal touch with many friends. Fox trots and waltzes alternated on the order after intermission and appeared strongly to the young people. Punch was served during the evening at a decorated table in one end of the hall while refreshments were sold at intermission under the direction of Philip W. Braden, O. J. Denvers, Sherman Allen, Earl Bradford and several young lady assistants.

The decoration color scheme was green and pink, and skillfully worked out by Ronell C. Bicknell. This work was a delicate arrangement and grouping of streamers about the stage, around the balcony and from the chandelier to the balcony supports. The words "Clerks' Ball 1923" formed with green letters were suspended over the stage front and a low balustrade of the two colors intertwined was placed across the footlights. A large committee worked many hours to complete this beautiful setting which made a fine picture especially to balcony patrons. The committee included Chester P. Gates, Leon G. Emery, Alfred J. Monk, Laurence H. Denison, Earl Bradford, William Ledger, Viola Walton, Ethel M. Thompson, Verna Kimball, Elizabeth Downing, Mrs. Raymond Evers, Richard Perkins.

The clerks who were in charge of the evening program served in the following capacity: Floor Manager—E. L. Burnell, Aids—Eugene DesotEAU, Scott Kilburn, William P. Keith, Edward A. Luck, Philip W. Braden, Edward S. McCormick, Honorary Aids—Wm. J. McKay, Bethel, Fred, Walter, Leonard, and others.

Mrs. E. L. Burnell was chairman of all the lady clerks to act as reception committee. Mrs. Ida Gurney, Ethel Thompson and Marion Downing provided the badges.

Board of Trade Meeting

The February meeting of the Norway Board of Trade held at Grange hall on the evening of the 5th was attended as "ladies' night." About 85 observed the banquet served at 7 o'clock in the dining hall. During the hour entertainment was furnished by the well known trio, Mary Mealand Stone, vocalist; Marian Haskell, violinist and Ruth Cummings accompanist. After the party adjourned to the upper hall, President B. G. McIntire opened the meeting with well timed remarks pertaining to good roads. He introduced the principal speaker, W. B. Moore of Portland who spoke convincingly on the State pier and its relation to rural communities. The informal talk was instructive with humorous stories to drive home the important facts. Music was rendered at intervals by the trio.

Dog Teams Coming Here

Laurence M. Carroll has arranged with the carnival committee at Auburn for the dog team racers to include Norway and South Paris in their 50 mile journey on Thursday, Feb. 22. The route will be through Mechanic Falls over Forest street to South Paris then back to the house of Main Street, Norway and double to Ward's thence to Auburn via Poland Springs. It is expected the teams will reach Norway about noon.

Mr. Carroll has also arranged for the village schools to suspend while the dogs are here. Two or more teams will be in the race and this event will prove a regular treat.

All dog owners are warned to keep their dogs off the streets at this time and avoid complications. Don't forget this stunt for the visiting canines won't stand small town fooling.

This race is a part of the winter Carnival staged at Auburn on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and has been brought here through Mr. Carroll's intimate acquaintance with Dr. Sturgis of the Carnival committee. Incidentally it is well to note Mr. Carroll is to square the expense of this detour.

Show the teams a good reception and give the contestants we have a generous supply of real sporting blood way up in Maine. Don't forget to tie up your dogs.

Sons of Veterans

Friday night, Feb. 16th, Joshua L. Chamberlain Camp No. 69 will hold its regular meeting at South Paris. A special observance in honor of Abraham Lincoln will be part of the evening program. BASKET BALL

Norway High 33; Livermore 17
Livermore Falls put on a scrappy team against Norway High School at Norway Opera House, Friday evening but were not able to head off the locals as they played ping pong with the sphere. Norway closed the first half with a 14-10 score after putting up a semi listless exhibition and Livermore showing the better article.

The second half developed a different story with the home contingent on the rampage and aggressive to the limit. In this chapter the visitors failed to measure up to the class impression conveyed earlier in the struggle so gradually slipped backward as rear guards. Near football stunts were staged during the closing exercises. Something like boxing effects featuring blurred impressions of arms legs and other anatomical appendages made the last act wonderfully colorful and fascinating. Both teams went after the bacon but Norway did the better carving and purloined the largest slice.

King was a shark for baskets while the tactics put across by Glen Andrews spoke well for his skill as a hard worker. Palmer, Lefrance and Smith, played their positions in good form. Tracy and Richardson from the reserves made good during their stay on the surface.

The visitors featured Sewell who was a high boy on basket shooting. His teammates were good performers and all showed excellent coaching and grit. While outclassed in every department but passing they also possessed a weakness on locating the hoops which worked against a winning score.

Earl Farnham of South Paris, an old time player and coach was referee. Summary: L. F. H. S. G FG PTS Sewell, H. 10 10 20 King, H. 10 10 20 Tracy, H. 10 10 20 Smith, H. 10 10 20 Lefrance, H. 10 10 20 Palmer, H. 10 10 20 Richards, H. 10 10 20 Andrews, H. 10 10 20 Totals 40 40 80

Gould's Game Friday Evening

The Gould's Academy quintet from Bethel will go on against Norway High at the Opera House Friday evening. This promises to develop into a regular game for both outfits are running on high gear under the critical eyes of experienced coaches. The teams are said to line up about 50-50, if so the contest should run with a close score and excitement unbridled. It is expected a preliminary will entertain during the opening and at intermission. Dancing will close the evening with music by Shaw's Famous Dance Team.

Anson J. Millett

Anson J. Millett, a life long resident of Norway died at his home in Millettville on Friday Feb. 9. His age was 68 years. He was son of Israel and Ann A. (Emery) Millett, born in Norway, Jan. 12, 1855. After attending school he settled in the family neighborhood and became a prosperous farmer and lumberman. He served on the board of selectmen and took considerable interest in the business affairs of his native town. Mr. Millett married Mary Crockett who lived only a few months after her marriage. For many years he had a home with his mother on the Millett farm where he passed away.

He was a member of Pennessewassee Lodge K. of P. and Norway Grange. His aged mother and five brothers survive. A funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at his late home Rev. C. G. Miller officiated. The bearers were the Knights, Percy H. Nevers, W. H. D. Smith, Leslie C. Whitman and Eugene Lebrooke. Burial is in Norway Pine Grove cemetery.

Farm Bureau Meeting

L. Merton Wyman, chairman of the local Farm Bureau, has arranged for one of the most important meetings of farmers ever held in Norway. Next Tuesday, Feb. 20, at 7 o'clock, State Farm Management, Expert, will be here to discuss the factors affecting farm profits. The meeting will be held in the Grange Hall beginning at 10:00.

For several years Mr. Jones has made a study of farm accounts kept by farmers in co-operation with the Extension Service. This extensive study has enabled him to find out the particular things which make the profits and losses on the farm, and being a forceful and pleasing speaker he will be able to bring these matters out so clearly that it will be a real treat to hear him.

All farmers and others interested should attend the meeting. The ladies of the Farm Bureau will hold a meeting the same day and will serve the dinner. A meeting of farm account and committee members will be held in the afternoon.

Big Holstein Test

Clayton McIntire of L. E. McIntire & Son, says: "The 3 year old heifer, Mabel Lyons Solihns, has recently completed the following A. B. O. records: 7 days milk 543.9 lbs., butter 25.15 lbs. 30 days milk 2997.8 lbs., butter 98.68 lbs. Her dam is to be tested late in March and I gave you the figures."

Roy Stearns has moved his stock in trade from the W. T. Smith store. Peter Turgeon, freight agent at the Grand Trunk station was at his home in Island Pond for a short vacation. Fred A. Olmsted substituted during the time.

Clarence Dyer is home from Bates College until the sessions are resumed. Arthur Olmstead who shipped in the Merchant Marine last August is expected home at an early date. He has visited every part of his cheerful presence. See, inspected the Kiel Canal and travel over a portion of Norway, Sweden and Scotland. In Sweden he was injured in a fall on shipboard and treated in a Sweden hospital several weeks.

The February term of Supreme Judicial Court opened at South Paris Tuesday forenoon with Justice John A. Morrill, presiding.

The snow storm delayed the train from the west, holding up jurors and attorneys about 11 o'clock when the crisis came. Mr. Shaw formerly opened the session. Prayer was offered by Rev. John L. Wilson of South Paris, Baptist church and the grand jury which served in October re-assembled. They were placed in charge of Deputy Sheriff Benjamin R. Billings of Bryant's Pond and with the new County Attorney Hugh W. Hastings of Fryeburg retired to their rooms. The Grand Jury is expanded as follows: Fred P. Bean (foreman), Bethel. C. H. Barker, Lovell. C. R. Berry, Hartford. Albert B. Brown, Paris. Augustus S. Colby, Denmark. H. H. Conant, Buckfield. Harry Goodrich, Mexico. J. E. Hathaway, Woodstock. Grand Jurors: B. B. Knowlton, R. E. McCullister, Canton. R. E. Mills, Andover. Capt. Lewis Newry. Peter W. Russell, Norway. H. Warren, Stoneham. Fred S. Waterman, Oxford. George Davis, the popular messenger was ill and unable to attend his duties Tuesday and the position was ably filled by Muriel Bowker of South Paris. Miss Bowker has the distinction of being the first woman to serve in that capacity in Oxford County and possibly the first in any Maine County.

Much out of the ordinary procedure was the absence of the traverse jurymen and jurywomen. They had been notified to appear Thursday morning and empaneled at that time. They are under the supervision of D. M. French and John H. Dennis.

In making up the docket at least sixteen civil cases were assigned for trial up to next Tuesday while a number went to the unassigned list, many of which will no doubt reach a settlement before a definite date is set for trial.

Matrimonial cases were heard Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday, and other legal matters not for the jury were taken up by the presiding justice.

The following attorneys were present at the opening of court. Many usually among the first to appear were detained by sickness or business engagements. Eugene F. Smith, Norway. Albert J. Stearns, Norway. Wilfred G. Conary, Norway. Walter L. Gray, South Paris. Albert C. Wheeler, South Paris. Harry M. Shaw, South Paris. Edward E. Hastings, Fryeburg. George Hutchins, Rumford. Albert E. Stearns, Rumford. Aretas E. Stearns, Rumford. Matthew McCarthy, Rumford. Ralph P. Parker, Rumford. E. P. Corliss, Bridgton. Walter P. Perkins, Cornish. Frank C. Bliss, Berlin, N. H.

The first of a series of joint social gatherings to be given by the women of Moosehead Legion and the Loyal Order of Moose will be held at Moose Hall, Monday evening, Feb. 19. A box supper at 7 o'clock will be followed by joint entertainment. Dates of future gatherings will be announced at this time. Each lady may bring a box and a large attendance is expected. Mrs. Elizabeth C. Holman left Wednesday for New York, where she attended the one day Terrier Clubs Specialty Show on the 9th, and the three day, Westminster Show at Madison Square Gardens, on the 12th, 13th and 14th. Mrs. Holman entered only her imported Cairn Terrier, "Cairn of Misty Isles." In the show, as the two small sons of this little lady are too young to be entered in the Puppy class this year.

The Hello Girls have selected Charles Wood, Manager of the local exchange as floor manager for their ball on Mar. 9. The operators will act as aids. Honorary aids are Stuart W. Goodwin and George E. Hill, Norway; Chas. W. Bowker and Stanley M. Wheeler of South Paris. Aretas E. Stearns of Rumford is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Stearns during the session of the Supreme Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Mattor passed the week end with Mrs. Mattor's mother, Mrs. Emma P. Saunders at South Waterford.

Hello Girls' Ball at Norway Opera House March 9 will be a regular time. The operators at Norway Central have many surprises for this big event and are preparing novelties to be staged during the dance. The "Hello Girls" Ball is being selected from the floor patrons. Shaw's Famous Dance Team has been secured for music. Floor tickets are being sold by the operators and their slogan "This is your call, Answer!" is impressed on all minds.

Mrs. R. N. Kilburn and Miss Annie Lavachelle of Portland were guests the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Kilburn.

The Norway Tigers went to Hebron Academy Saturday night to give the Academy quintet a practice game. The tigers were defeated with a 62-17 score but gave the visitors plenty of exercise at that. Summary for the locals was as follows: Clarence Sheldon, 14; 4 points; Albert Payne, 14; 9; Carlton Lebrooke, 4; 2; "Cappie" Smith, 14; 2; Arthur Payne, 10. They play Woodstock at Bryant's Pond next Saturday evening with the following line up: Sheldon, 14; Smith, 14; Albert Payne, 14; Clarence Dyer, 14; Arthur Payne, 14. A game at Mechanic Falls is pending.

The entertainment for the Washington Birthday supper to be given at the Congregational vestry on next Wednesday evening, will consist of readings and music, mostly in costume. There will be chorus singing by the eighth grade pupils. This grade is reported to be far above the average in its ability to sing, and has voices in it with possibilities of future careers. Tableaux from the life of George Washington are being arranged and a musical farce under the direction of Mrs. Harold Anderson will be a star feature. This will make a programme varied enough to suit all tastes and will no doubt prove very interesting.

Man Killed on Railroad Track

Dr. H. L. Bartlett, the Medical Examiner was summoned to Lockes Mills, Tuesday forenoon to view the remains of a man run over by the passenger train from Portland bound. He made the trip on the Norway branch train ordered there by Grand Trunk officials.

According to facts learned from various sources the victim was one of three men, all strangers, riding the bumpers on a freight train to Portland. Two in the party jumped off at Bethel to get warm, and soon after started a foot on the track in the direction of Lockes Mills, ahead of the morning passenger train. After tramping some two miles, the storm and intense cold drove one man back toward Bethel and the other continued his journey eastward. The train passed the eastward traveler a mile or so beyond the point where they separated and fate singled him out to discover the mangled body of his companion who started for Bethel at a switch near Lockes Mills station.

Exactly what happened will never be known. It is believed the man returning to Bethel was overcome with the intense cold and fell between the rails. He was thinly clad, wearing only a union suit, overalls and a light weight sweater. The engineer remembered passing only one man near the track but recalled an object resembling a drift across the rails some two miles from Bethel station. This might have been the victim. The body was carried under the cars nearly three miles before released by the switch. An undertaker from Bethel took charge of the remains. Every effort has been made to identify the victim.

The survivor is in the county jail it is said to account for quantity of liquor he carried in a hand bag on the trip.

Warning

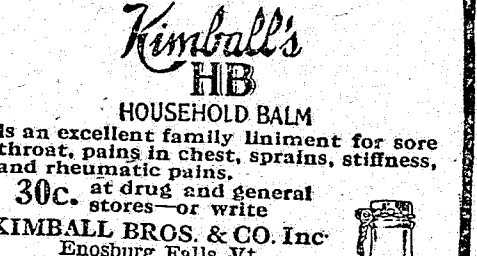

Have you a sharp pain or a dull ache across the small of your back? Do you realize that it's often a timely sign of kidney weakness? Prompt treatment is a safeguard against more serious kidney troubles. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Profit by a Norway resident's experience.

Mrs. W. J. Olmstead, 95 Main St., says: "My kidneys began to give me trouble as they were weak. My back ached so badly I could hardly get through with my housework and everything I undertook to do seemed to drag. I was dizzy and could see star-like spots before my eyes. My feet and ankles swelled. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills being so good and sent for some. When I had finished taking them, I felt as well as ever. The backache ceased and my kidneys became regulated. I have told a number of people about Doan's Kidney Pills and never fail to recommend them."

AEROBELL Electric Vacuum Clothes Washer

The Aerobell is backed by a broad gauge guarantee which insures your satisfaction.

The Aerobell embodies the improvements for which you have been waiting: Aluminum wringer frame, new type safety release, big round copper tub with full opening, and only three legs for steadiness on uneven floors.

Air Pressure and Suction in the vacuum cups actually draw the soap suds through the fabrics. You can hardly believe how quickly and thoroughly the air-cushioned vacuum cups clean, and they can't harm the most delicate articles. There is no belt, and the mechanism is under the tub, out of the way.

The Aerobell is simple in construction and built to stand years of hard work. It is designed to reduce effort to a minimum. You can depend upon it day after day, year after year.

Principle of Operation—When the washer is in operation the vacuum cups inside the tub move up and down upon the clothes. At the end of each upward stroke the cups rotate partially around the tub and come down in a different position. Thus, all the clothes in the tub are acted upon equally. On the downward stroke as the cups reach the water they entrap the air, and clothes, forcing the soapy water through the pores of the cloth. On the upward stroke a vacuum is created which draws the soap solution again through the meshes. Thus, as the vacuum cups reciprocate they continue to force the hot suds back and forth through the fabric. During this operation the clothes change their position in the tub slowly so that all of them in turn come under action of the cups. The action above described will cleanse the heaviest blankets and the daintiest fabrics with equal effectiveness and without the slightest injury.

The capacity of the Aerobell is 8 sheets or their equivalent.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION ON CONSERVATION AND JUST TAXATION OF OUR TIMBERLANDS

By Dr. Richard F. Chase, W. Baldwin
Our system of timberland taxation is not only antiquated, but also unjust. The change of times and economic conditions have made the application of this system well nigh impossible; moreover the system is a menace to our timber industry.

A report of the committee on forestry of the National Tax Association states: "The property tax is fundamentally defective when applied to the total value of land and trees of a growing forest, resulting, if strictly administered, in grossly excessive taxation of forests as compared with other forms of property yielding annual incomes."

By our present system a timberlot is taxed, and from time to time the valuation is raised, on account of the growth of the timber, other things being equal. Now this growth represents the annual income from the timberlot, and it is taxed and taxed in advance. The rental or income annually received from a rental house is not taxed. The tax on the timberlot and the growth thereon (the income), is a process of double taxation. The system is also unjust because it permits assessors to levy on one man too much and on another not enough, and because it permits practically the same valuation on cut-over land as was assessed before the timber was cut.

No one knows a year in advance what the tax may be on a timberlot held as an investment, this is certainly an undesirable and uncertain factor to be considered when figuring prospective profits. Annual taxes on timberland are an especial hardship to the farmer, who must meet such taxes with cash obtained from other sources. Our present high taxes are influencing or compelling many to cut their timber before it is merchantable and they discourage some who might otherwise grow more timber, herein the system is a distinct menace to our timber industry. Now, a tax system which eliminates all of the foregoing defects and which by whomsoever administered taxes all timber owners equally alike, would seem distinctly preferable to our present system. Seemingly, such a system was recommended by the National Tax Association in 1913, the following is a brief outline, "an annual tax on the land, valued as bare land and taxed at a certain rate, together with tax upon forest products. In 1922 the committee reported: "It is safe to say that the fundamental idea of this plan has gained general acceptance among the advocates of forest tax reform."

Many details of this system and its principles are embodied in our "optional" law, chapter 78, Public Laws of Me. 1921, to which you are referred. If this system of taxation were generally adopted by the State it would work as follows: On mature timber, until cut, the owner would probably pay the regular property tax, thereafter the lot would come under the newer system. On younger growth, the owner would pay an annual tax on the bare land, assessed at its going value and taxed at a rate probably from $20 to $40 per $1,000. This would be the only tax on his timberlot until he cuts some timber, for sale, when he would pay a certain per cent. (not to exceed 6%) of the stumpage sale price. Example: If he sells timber at $15 per M stumpage, then he would pay say 5% of $15, or 75 cents on each thousand feet sold. The amount from the annual tax and from the "yield or products" tax would be collected and distributed just the same as present taxes.

By such a system (1) a single tax only is applied to timberlots, the growth or income is not taxed annually as at present. (2) An owner knows the approximate amount of his tax, a year or ten years hence; (3) the owner pays his principal tax (the yield tax) after selling his timber, at the time he collects its income, and has the money with which to pay the tax; (4) every owner is taxed identically the same rate and according to his holdings—one owner no more nor less than another; (5) Such a system tends to encourage rather than discourage the growing of timber.

Since the total tax from all timberlands will be less (if they should be) by this system, one at once balks, and asks how this deficit in taxes is to be made up. He probably has never stopped to consider how the deficit is to be made up, under the present system, when the timber is entirely gone, the owner is left to happen in some towns in the not distant future. By this newer system this deficit can be considerably relieved, by the land tax, and by paying the prospective yield tax in annual statements in advance. Examples: A timber lot in ten years may be estimated to yield a million feet of timber. When cut, it may yield $15,000 and the yield tax at 5 per cent. will amount to $750. This tax can be paid as suggested, one-tenth, or $75 per year, less interest thereon. In so far as possible, such a system should be administered by the same officers as administer the present system.

Now as to conservation, I believe we are all agreed as to its need. But how is it to be brought about? All agencies thus far have failed in their attempts at conservation. For instance, the State (Maine included) through various tax inducements offered the timberland owner, have failed to accomplish anything of importance. The matter has been left entirely to the option of the timber owner and we have ample evidence on all sides of his accomplishments. Now shall it be left to him longer, with the result a foregone conclusion? I believe it should not. I believe the time has arrived, even in this State, for the enactment of some measure to regulate timber operations. Is there any valid reason why an owner may not be required to leave seed trees on cut over land, or not to cut trees under certain sizes, when it is practicable and more profitable to leave them standing? As to the constitutionality of such a procedure, among others at hand, there is an opinion of the Supreme Court of this State rendered in 1908 on this identical subject, "We do not think the proposed legislation would operate to 'take' private property within the inhibition of the Constitution. While it might restrict the owner of timberlands in his use of them, might defer his anticipated profits, it would nevertheless leave him his lands, their product, and increase untouched, and without diminution of title, estate, or quantity. There are two reasons of great weight for applying this strict construction of the constitutional provision to property in land: (1) Such property is not the result of productive labor, but is derived solely from the state itself, the original owners. (2) The amount of land being incapable of increase, if the owners of large tracts can waste them at will without state restriction, the state and its people may be helplessly impoverished

Resolved, that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the husband, a copy to the members of our order, and a copy sent to the Norway Advertiser for publication.

MAINE IN FLORIDA

St. Petersburg, Fla., Jan. 22, 1923.

Newbury Advertiser and Friends:

My paper has not been delivered for the past three weeks until today. Was afraid you had run out of fuel, so am sending you check to buy more fuel. We are almost afraid to read the paper when it does come, there are so many deaths.

I have one Harrison family coming in my lumber yard, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Egan and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Seth Jewett are on the east coast for a while.

I was some surprised the other day, Henry Bangs, who used to be in trade in Norway, called on me. He came down with his daughter, Alfred, who is planning to spend the winter here. She has been in bed three years and is now gaining slowly. We hope she may gain faster here in our "Sunshine City".

Mr. Bangs stayed only two or three days. Saw by the Portland paper Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blake were starting south this week. We have a great many more northern people here than ever before.

The Congregational church was enlarged last year to hold 2,000 people. We turned away people Sunday for want of room. We have a live Maine society with over 200 members. It meets every two weeks, Cumberland Head has the program this week with refreshments.

We are enjoying our garden much, string beans, cucumbers, beets, carrots. The lawn is green as summer and flowers in bloom. Strawberries are 30 cents per quart so we have shortcake. Washington apples to eat 5 cents each. Get oranges and grapefruit that are not good to ship, just right to eat, 15 cents per dozen.

Ben Brown from Lovell has his large dining room completed, I think it is one of the best in the state, if not the best. He has a wonderful place out at Pasadena on the Gulf. When he gets started here think he will do more business than in Maine.

SONGS OF JOY

We find a lot of things in life which surely give us pleasure.

There are countless ways to make our cup of life a brimming one with pleasure.

But of all the many joys in life, the best one I have found

Is pay day, when they pass that bunch of yellow checks around.

We elbow and we jostle and we make a lot of those yellow checks around.

For the 'pay' is at the window,—act just like a pack of boys

And it seems as though I couldn't keep my feet upon the ground.

For it's pay day and they're going to pass those yellow checks around.

To be sure that yellow paper doesn't linger with us long.

It is hard to get for more'n a week, we'd think there's something wrong.

The kids they need some winter clothes and shoes that's whole and sound:

They'll have to wait until they pass those yellow checks around.

We figure where it's going quite a spell 'fore it arrives.

And how we're going to eke it out, can't tell But when it's gone, no use to cry and make a mournful sound.

For soon they'll pass another batch of yellow checks around.

Long we're healthy and we're happy, what's the use for us to grab

Guess our conscience doesn't bother like the folks who grab and grab.

And there's nothing ever brings the thrill of happiness that's found.

Each pay day, when they hand those little yellow checks around.

As Spoke in Lunenburg

A woman entered a bus and took a ticket which expired at the tower of London. As she made no attempt to alight at that point the conductor called out: "Ere yar, lady! You want the tower, don't yer?"

"Yus," she replied, "but as I ain't got nowhere to put it I'll go on to the next stop."—London Standard.
